

FOR GROUPS

“My name is Jackson Dubois and I'd like to welcome you to my bar, where I serve you the best memories of my journey. My belief is that you can only understand a culture by tasting it and that's exactly what I have done since I was eighteen.

I've seen everything, tasted the most and remembered the best. In my bar, you will enjoy 20 champagnes, 50 craft beers and street food from all around the globe.

For groups, I have a special menu which you can find on the right. It is based on shared dining, which means you get a table full of bites to share. You and your guests will take a trip around the world, tasting the best memories of my journey so far. Everything is served street style, because that's how I discovered it.

The menu can be ordered by groups with a minimum of eight people and costs 25 euros per person. I strongly advise you to book your table in advance, they are available at 6:30PM or 8:30PM.

Peace and love,

Jackson Dubois
